

I know that someday...

I know that someday I'll get used to the fact that we are not together anymore. Time will tell. In the meantime, though, you may be far away from my arms, but you will never be far from my heart. I know the love will never leave. There are too many memories; there were so many precious moments and wonderful times to ever try to forget...and I just want you to know that I will remember for the rest of my days, how you helped me find some happiness and some truths and how you opened some beautiful doors. I'll never forget how good it was to share a part of my life with yours.
